

About Salsa Legends And Masters Academy

Welcome to Salsa Legends And Masters Academy, the place to learn about the history, legends and masters of the genre.

Mission

To keep the music alive by providing an online information resource for anyone, any age, anywhere, interested in the genre of Salsa.

A great thing about Salsa music is , that even if you have a million things going on in your own personal life, you can come back to it and enjoy it, either by just listening, dancing to it, singing coro or playing claves, maracas, an old conga, bell or whatever, just because it's fun and it makes you feel good.

That's what the academy is about, 1st and foremost, it's a place where you can learn all about the history, the legends, the masters and what the latest things are, that are happening, relative to the genre of Salsa. It's an online resource/library/compilation of interactive digital media and information, including; videos, photos, audio, links, etc., of the history, legends, and innovators, featuring current masters, giving lessons & classes in all levels of instruction in dance, and music in the genre of Salsa. But it's so much more than that. You can interact with fellow Salsa lovers from all over the world, right here on the forums and can also interact with living legends and masters too.

You can share with the world too. How? Say you have classic photo(s), video(s), live recording(s), etc., that you've had for years and you've thought, "the world should see, hear, experience this too". Why keep it to yourself? You can send it to SalsaLegendsAndMastersAcademy@gmail.com and we will post/share it on this site, if we consider it to be relevant and of value to the community. Or you can share via post. It is my intention to keep this site as a family oriented place so please refrain from posting anything that might be construed as offensive and/or inappropriate. Thanks

In the very near future, you will be able to take your enjoyment of Salsa to the next level in any one or combination of the following ways:

You'll be able to learn how to dance if you don't already know how, and if you do know how and want to get even better, there'll be an option to do that too.

If you've always wanted to learn how to play an instrument, Salsa style, you'll be able to do that too.

If you already play and want to take it to the next level, you'll be able to do that too. You, be learning via videos from legends and masters or both. Sound good?

Stay tuned, as we fill out pages with everything Salsa. As far as I know, there is nothing else like this out there so I hope you'll keep coming back and interacting with us and the rest of the Salsa lovers, all over the world, in this centrally located site. You can also follow us on our
