

Introducing: Lessons With Legends And Masters

Hey Salseros, I mentioned in the past, that one of the features of Salsa Legends And Masters Academy would be as a resource to learn how to play instruments, Salsa style. Well, here it is!!

This is not, "I'm taking lessons with Juanito Fulano that lives down the block and plays with El Conjunto Vente Tu". This is lessons with Living Legends and Masters. The people who are on the recordings you've had in your or your parents' record/CD collections for years. You won't find this anywhere else. It's exclusive available via Pete Nater's Salsa Legends And Masters Academy at www.LessonsWithLegendsAndMasters.com

A little bit on how this will work. With the help of today's technology, you and anyone else, anywhere on the planet, will be able to attend a "Live" webinar class (online seminar) with the legends and masters. If you own a computer or a smart phone, you could be anywhere, as long as you have internet access and be able to attend these classes.

The first 4 or 5 people to sign up for each class also will have the option to appear on camera at times(providing the have a webcam or camera-phone) and can ask the instructor questions at some point in the class. Everyone else can ask via the included chat window or possibly via telephone. Is everyone going to be speaking at the same time? No, we will run this in an organized manner. Questions will be handled "First come, first served, as time allows. For the most part, you will only hear the instructor and myself speaking and the instructor playing, as well as any audio and videos we might share as part of the class.

Q: What if I can't attend the "Live" class? A: No problem. Each class will be recorded and posted online, shortly after the class and accessible to students who are enrolled in the classes. Although you won't be able to ask questions, chances are someone else already did and the answer is in the video. Sound good?

Stay tuned to my Facebook pages and SlamaNater.com for more information. The 1st class will be Sunday, March 29th at 6PM EST. The 1st class will be absolutely FREE and given by living legend Nicky Marrero on timbales, so spread the word to all your Salsero friends. Know that all the instruments (including vocals) will be covered eventually, and so will Salsa dance!!!

Watch the video below to hear from the 1st three legends/masters/teachers. I don't know about you, but I'm excited!!!
